

Doctoral theses

Using data from The Norwegian Renal Registry (in one or more papers)

- 26: Dag Olav Dahle:
Vascular functions, calcification and clinical outcomes in kidney transplantation.
Oslo 2015.
- 25: Inger Hjørdis Bleskestad:
Markers of disturbed mineral metabolism in chronic kidney disease.
Bergen 2015.
- 24: Marjolein Bonthuis:
Nutrition and growth in European children with end-stage renal disease.
Amsterdam 2014.
- 23: Moniek van de Luijtgaarden:
Starting renal replacement therapy in end-stage renal disease patients.
Amsterdam 2014.
- 22: Lene Frøyen Sandvik:
Squamous cell carcinomas in renal transplant recipients. Analyses of various dendritic cell populations.
Bergen 2013.
- 21: Inger Karin Lægreid:
Quality of life in older dialysis patients. Influencing factors and research challenges.
Trondheim 2013.
- 20: Einar Gude:
Limitations of current treatment strategies in human heart transplantation: Studies on pulmonary hemodynamics, renal failure and immunosuppression.
Oslo 2013.
- 19: Tone Brit Hortemo Østhus:
Health-related quality of life in patients with endstage renal disease receiving chronic dialysis treatment.
Oslo 2012.
- 18: Tone Gretland Valderhaug:
New-onset diabetes after renal transplantation. Diagnosis, incidence, and long-term effect on patient survival.
Oslo 2012.
- 17: Geir Mjøen:
Living kidney donation in Norway.
Oslo 2012.
- 16: Hilde Kloster Smerud:
Mucosal immunity and treatment options.
Uppsala 2012
- 15: Rune Oskar Bjørneklett:

Long-term prognosis in chronic primary glomerulonephritides.
Bergen 2012.

14: Trine Tangeraas:
Survival, cardiorespiratory fitness and quality of life after renal transplantation in childhood:
Data from the HENT study.
Oslo 2011

13: Anneke Kramer:
Epidemiology and outcomes of renal replacement therapy: results from the ERA-EDTA Registry.
Amsterdam 2011.

12: Gudrun Elisabeth Norby:
Renal transplantation in SLE.
Oslo 2010

11: Henrik Andreas Bergrem:
Hyperglycaemia before and after renal transplantation.
Oslo 2010.

10: Kristian Heldal:
Kidney transplantation in the elderly.
Oslo 2010.

9: Cecilia Montgomery Øien:
Gender aspects in kidney transplantation.
Oslo 2007.

8. Paul van Dijk:
Renal epidemiology in Europe a registry perspective.
Amsterdam 2007

7: Øystein Flesland:
Microchimerism after transfusion and transplantation and some associated immunomodulatory effects.
Oslo 2005.

6: Solbjørg Sagedal:
Cytomegalovirus infection and disease in renal transplant recipients.
Oslo 2004

5: Jøran Hjelmæsæth:
Glucose intolerance, insulin resistance and cardiovascular risk factor after renal transplantation.
Oslo 2002.

4: Petter Jensen Gjersvik:
Dermatological complications of immunosuppression in kidney and heart transplant recipients.
Oslo 2000.

3: Anna Varberg Reisæter:
Alloimmune responses. Experimental and clinical studies.
Oslo 1998.

2: Knut Paul Nordal & Eilif Dahl:
Renal osteodystrophy in Norway. Aspects of pathogenesis and treatment.
Oslo 1992

1: Torbjørn Leivestad:
Responses of human T lymphocytes to alloantigens in vivo and in vitro.
Oslo 1989